Aluminum Horse Shoes.

In these days every device known to the horseman is applied to fast going to increase their speed, the main object being to get rid of much weight as possible, and yesterday the first horse to wear aluminum shoes was shod under the direction of Dr. William Petrie, the veterinary surgeon, the animal being Mr. A. S. List's colt, Ben Harrison. Dr. Petrie had the shoes made in Chicago, and will introduce more of them as the occasion demands. The shoes are very light, but durable, the fore shoes weighing but four ounces and the hind ones two and one-half ounces.

German Soldiers' Day.

This afternoon the German veterans' association will have an interesting picnic on the State fair grounds. It will be preceded by a street parade, headed by the Opera House band, which will start at 1 p. m. sharp. It will start at Reidel's hall, corner of Twenty-third and Chapline streets, move down Chapline to Twenty-seventh, to Main, up Main to Twentieth, to Market, to Tenth, to Main, to the new bridge, and thence to the Island and the State fair grounds. Several good features are on the afternoon's programme.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

October 25, 1892, by Charles Schmidt, F. Happy and H. Bjoberson and their wives to Wenzel Yanda, for $200, lot 8 in Belvedere addition.

July 7 by H. C. Hunter and wife to James McGinley and William McLaughlin, for $1,350, two tracts on Little Wheeling creek, in Triadelphia district.

May 25 by W. J. W. Cowden and wife to W. A. Hodze, for $570, lot 8 in William Armstrong's addition on the Island.

March 13 by Joseph Coates and wife to Eljah Verse, for $250, part of lots 127, 128 and 129 in West Liberty.

HE CLAIMS A FOUL.

E. C. McClelland Says He Can Beat Peter Friddy Yet.

E. C. McClelland got home yesterday from Pittsburgh, where he was beaten by Pete Friddy Saturday in a five mile race for the championship of the United States. The race was changed to a track which kept it out of the championship contest, and McClelland claims that Friddy fouled him twice, once shoving him against the rope and the second time tripping him. The referee said he couldn't see this, and Mac says he probably did not, as the crowd got on the track and the police could do nothing.

He says he can beat Friddy at any stage of the game. He will run him in Wheeling four weeks from next Saturday for $1,000 and all the gate receipts, and no loss, and let Friddy choose the judge and referee from Pittsburgh, or he will run him at Washington, Pa., and choose the judge here, letting Friddy bring the referee from Pittsburgh.

McClelland will run three miles on the State Fair Grounds this afternoon against three men, each running one mile. He will leave in a day or two to run several races at Chicago.

Another Foot Race.

Last evening a young man went to Professor Lee, the runner, and offered to put up a forfeit of $75 against $40 that he could not make the Harrieville-Martin's Ferry run in the time the women did last Friday evening. One man offers to bet $100 to $50 that Lee can't do it, and another says he has $50 to bet the same way. It is said that at least $2,000 can be raised to bet against $1,000. The general supposition is that Lee can not run the distance in seventy-two minutes and one and a half seconds. Lee says he will have the money put up and the articles signed to-day. He says he will want three weeks in which to train. He recently made eight miles in fifty minutes, without much effort.

If afflicted with scalp disease, hair falling out, and premature baldness, do not use grease or alcoholic preparations, but apply Hall's Hair Renewer.

Don't fail to attend the German Soldiers' Society Picnic to-day at New Fair Grounds. Good time for all.

BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

Seventy-Five Iron Workers Discharged Over the River.

DULLNESS OF TRADE IS THE CAUSE.

An Officer of the Aena-Standard Mill Explains Why the Company Was Forced to Take the Step it Did—The Uncertainty as to the Policy of Congress in the Future Makes Buyers Conservative and Close.

About seventy-five regular employees of the Aena-Standard Iron and Steel Company, of Bridgeport, received notice from the manager last Saturday that their services were indefinitely dispensed with. Inquiry of officers high in authority in this concern, resulted in the information that the suspension of the employees was a business necessity, wholly and solely on account of the general depression in business, and in no manner influenced by the combination of the two mills, as stated in another paper.

"It," said an officer, "trade was in as healthy a condition as it was one year ago, not a man would have been dispensed with; but buyers are timid, and this to my mind is brought about by a combination of conditions, chief among which is the fear of tinkering with the tariff. The Democratic party are in full control of the Government under pledges to the country, that are well calculated to create alarm and induce close and careful buying of our product. It is not a scarcity of money, but a general stagnation of business, induced not by any absolute necessity, but simply because of a feeling of unrest and insecurity as to the political policy to be expected from the party in power."

"Our mill," he continued, "may be idle one month or two, at least until after Congress meets next month." The partial stoppage of this big mill under existing conditions has paralyzed business of all kinds in Bridgeport, and the mutterings against the party that is charged with the responsibility are both loud and deep. Political sentiment in Bridgeport is strongly for McKinley. It will be hard to find a Democratic voter among the mill men or the G. A. R. men when the next election comes.

WHITSON GETS TWO YEARS.

He Pleads Guilty of Forgery—Criminal Court to Close.

Yesterday in the Criminal Court, Judge Jordan on the bench, the case of R. A. Whitson, a former agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, indicted for forgery, was called for trial. When arraigned Whitson entered a plea of guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court. He was sentenced to be imprisoned in the penitentiary two years.

The case of Dr. R. L. Ashbrooke, indicted for complicity in Whitson's swindling operations, was then taken up on a demurrer to the indictment. This was sustained by the court and the accused held in $500 bail for his appearance at the next term to answer to the finding of the grand jury.

Judge Jordan yesterday dismissed the jury. Court will adjourn this week until the next term, which opens September 4.

Four prizes for shooting, and a good purse for foot racing.

All prizes can be seen at R. C. Shubert's jewelry store.

The foot races are between the well known McClelland and only three men from Wheeling, to run a distance of three miles, each of the three men to run one mile, while McClelland runs the whole.
